

POLAND IS BEAUTIFUL

THE SEA

Poland lies on the Baltic sea. The largest and most interesting cities on the Baltic Sea are Gdańsk, Gdynia and Sopot, which are called the Tri-City.

THE POLISH COAST

The Polish coast is 440 kilometers. There are several smaller resorts on it such as: Stegna, Dębki, Rowy, Piaski and many more. But there are also larger resorts such as: Władysławowo, Hel, Międzyzdroje, Łeba and many others.

MASURIA - MAZURY

- Geographical and cultural region in north-eastern Poland. You can find there breathtaking landscapes, clean air, beautiful lakes and forests. Major cities such as: Giżycko, Mikołajki and Iława.

MASURIAN LAKES

- ▶ The largest Polish lakes are: Śniardwy, Mamry, Łebsko, Dąbie.
- ▶ Śniardwy-11340,4 ha
- ▶ Mamry-10282,4 ha
- ▶ Łebsko-7140,0 ha
- ▶ Dąbie-5408 ha

MOUNTAINS IN POLAND

- ▶ Rysy-the highest peak of the Tatra Mountains. The 2499 meter-high mountain is located on the border between Poland and Sloviaka.

- ▶ A large number of people go to Zakopane during the winter holidays or in summer. There you can ski, go mountain climbing, you can go hiking in the Tatra valleys and visit other beautiful places such as Morskie Oko.

THE BIESZCZADY MOUNTAINS

- ▶ The Bieszczady Mountains deserve to be called the wildest mountains in Poland not only because you will meet a real bison by the road, and at night you will hear the moose roar and - perhaps - distant howling of wolves.
- ▶ Tourists are attracted to this place by amazing views from gentle mountain pastures, Bieszczady devils and angels, Bieszczady music and above all the stunning beauty of these mountains located farthest south-east of Poland.
